

Confluence Exhibit Proposal

Deadline for Submissions: April 6, 2018

Coordinated annually by the Klondike Institute of Art & Culture (KIAC), Confluence at the SOVA Gallery is a DIY community exhibition series which offers a space for local artists working in any medium to exhibit their artwork throughout the summer months.

- Selected exhibitors are responsible for all aspects of their show (hanging, lighting, opening receptions, gallery-sitting, takedown and clean up, etc.) KIAC staff will assist with promotion and will provide basic hanging supplies and direction as needed.
- Exhibitors are responsible for ensuring the gallery is open during advertised hours. Volunteer gallery-sitters may be recruited if necessary.
- Exhibition slots will be offered to KIAC members only. KIAC memberships can be purchased at KIAC in the front office during business hours. Yearly memberships are $25 for individuals / $50 for families.
- Submit your proposal to KIAC's Program Manager
By email: programs@kiac.ca
In person: KIAC, 2nd & Princess, Mon-Fri, 9-5
