Drag Me North

Doors open: 7:30 / Showtime: 8:00

at the Palace Grand Theatre (Cash bar)

Presented in partnership with Parks Canada Klondike National Historic Sites, KIAC, and Queer Yukon

Drag Me North is a showcase of the Yukon's burgeoning drag scene, returning to the vaudevillian stage at the historic Palace Grand Theatre. At a time where gender difference and performance is under attack, our show aims to celebrate the myriad of identities and expressions in our community, while gathering together for a weekend in beautiful Dawson City, traditional territory of the Tr'ondëk Hwëch'in.

Featuring: Beau Ryder, Burning Palette, Dusty Harley, RikkiTiTs, rAtSs NeSt, special surprise digital performances, and local bad boy of the West Side ANDYBOY as your host for the night!

Mature content.

Dialogues Riopelle (Yukon): Stories of Yukon migrations

Hosted by Marie-Hélène Comeau

1pm-4 pm KIAC Classroom

In this workshop, participants are invited to create an art journal by focusing on the subject of migration, and more specifically, on the changes in identity that people have experienced when they left their place of origin to settle in this territory.
